DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

About this data protection notice

This data protection notice sets out details of the personal data relating to you that we collect and how we process it.

Who collects your data?

Your data is collected by The Institute of Bankers in Ireland, 1 North Wall Quay, Dublin 1 (trading as The Institute of Banking) ('the Institute', 'we', 'us', 'our'). The Institute is a Data Controller and is committed to protecting your rights in line with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

What information do we collect about you?

In order to provide our services to you we collect contact, home and work details and other identifying information from you when you fill out this registration form. We may also collect and process personal data in connection with our ongoing relationship with you, such as via correspondence and calls with you and in relation to your participation as a student on one of our programmes. From time to time, we may collect personal data relating to you from third party sources, such as your employer.

Am I required to provide the information?

We require you to complete the mandatory fields identified in our registration form for the purposes of entering into a contract with you. If you do not provide us with the information required in these fields, we may be unable to process your registration to modules on this programme.

How will your information be used?

Information gathered and generated during the course of your studies, may be used and disclosed by the Institute for all purposes which are reasonably incidental to the administration of your participation on the programme, including for the following purposes:

- registration to programmes of the Institute
- registration with University College Dublin
- administration of the programme, e.g. attendance notices for lectures, distribution of course material, issue of UCD student cards, student group allocations, etc.
- administration of exams, e.g. attendance notices, assessment processes, transcripts, etc.
- distribution of exam results
- collection of your education fees
- provision of educational support, e.g. programme management emails etc.
- other operational supports including IT support
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of students
- carrying out surveys and statistical analysis
- providing and promoting information on our membership, education, designation and continuing professional development services
- tailoring communications to make them relevant to any preferences that you may have demonstrated
- establishing, exercising or defending legal claims.

What are our legal bases for processing your personal data?

We process personal data on the following legal bases:

- The processing of your information is necessary to take steps at your request prior to entering into this contract with you, and for the performance of this contract between the Institute and you.
- The processing is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party to whom we provide your personal data. We will not process your personal data for these purposes if our or the third party's legitimate interests should be overridden by your own interests or fundamental rights and freedoms. The legitimate interests pursued in this regard consist of:
 - conducting our business in a meaningful and lawful manner;
 - dealing with any disputes that may arise;
 - carrying out direct marketing, subject to any preferences communicated by you; or
 - providing information relating to you to your employer, where they have a legitimate interest in obtaining that information
- In certain limited circumstances, we rely on your consent as our legal basis for processing.
- The processing is necessary for compliance with our legal obligations.

PLEASE TURN OVER THE PAGE TO REVIEW THE DATA PROTECTION NOTICE AND COMPLETE THE DECLARATION AND PAYMENT SECTION.

Who receives your information?

We will share your information with our service providers (e.g. printers, IT support, auditors, legal advisors, and other professional advisors).

We may disclose your information to your employer or the Central Bank of Ireland e.g. for Minimum Competency Code/Regulation and/or Fitness and Probity requirements.

In certain circumstances, we may disclose your information to our educational partners, e.g. UCD, Higher Education Authority (HEA) to facilitate the Irish National Survey of Student Engagement.

Third party disclosure may also take place to relevant funding bodies and agencies (e.g. Summit Finuas Skillnet, Skillnet Ireland, Financial Services Ireland, Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection) that support or sponsor your education. Please note that once registered and where appropriate, fees will be claimed from the relevant funding body.

We may also disclose your information to other legal and regulatory bodies where requested or where required by law.

How long will your information be held?

Your information will be retained for no longer than necessary to provide our services to you as a college of UCD and for such a period of time after this as is necessary to comply with our obligations under applicable law and, if relevant, to deal with any claim or dispute that may arise in connection with our relationship with you.

What are your rights?

You have the following rights, in certain circumstances and subject to applicable exemptions:

- You are entitled to ask for a copy of the personal data, which the Institute of Banking holds about you
- The right to have any inaccuracies in your personal data amended.
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data.
- The right to have the personal data that we hold about you erased.
- The right to restrict the processing of your personal data.
- The right to receive your personal data, which you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to require us to transmit that data to another controller.
- Where processing is based on consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

If you want to exercise any of these rights, please contact the Institute's Data Protection Officer using the contact details below.

If you are unhappy with the way in which your personal data has been processed you may in the first instance contact the Institute's Data Protection Officer using the contact details below.

The Institute of Banking has a Data Protection Officer who can be contacted through dataprotection@iob.ie or by writing to: The Data Protection Officer, The Institute of Banking, 1 North Wall Quay, Dublin 1.

If you remain dissatisfied then you have the right to apply directly to the Data Protection Commission for a decision. The Data Protection Commission can be contacted at www.dataprotection.ie or by writing to: Data Protection Commission, Canal House, Station Road, Portarlinton, R32 AP23 Co. Laois.
